IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF FEDERAL CLAIMS

TEXAS PEANUT FARMERS, et al.

Plaintiffs,

vs.

THE UNITED STATES,

Defendant.

No. 03-445C
(Judge Firestone)

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

NOW COME the Plaintiffs, by and through undersigned counsel, and respectfully move for an extension of time to file a Response to the Defendant's Motion to Dismiss. In support of this Motion, undersigned counsel shows the Court as follows:

1. At the telephone conference on July 25, 2003 undersigned counsel thought he would have enough time to prepare a response. Undersigned counsel unexpectedly was tied up with a number of personal and business matters during the week of July 28, 2003.
2. Undersigned counsel attended a funeral on August 4, 2003; undersigned counsel has a significant State court appearance on August 5, 2003, and debriefing that afternoon and many pressing matters and deadlines in other cases before his departure on August 7.
3. Undersigned counsel is scheduled for a trip out of the state from August 7, 2003 to August 15, 2003.
4. Consistent with this Court's Scheduling Order, the Plaintiffs have made a proposal regarding a joint stipulation of dismissal that codifies the representations of the

JPB

Defendant before this Court that pursuant to 7 U.S.C. § 1506(d), the exclusive forum for the Plaintiffs' action is in the appropriate United States District Court. Government's counsel has advised that she was out of the office last week and will need some time to consult with various people and is working on it.

5. Furthermore, undersigned counsel notified the Government of this request for an extension of time, and Jane W. Vanneman, counsel for the Government has advised that the Government does not object to this extension of time.

WHEREFORE, for good cause shown, it is respectfully requested that this honorable Court extend the time to file a response to Defendant's Motion to Dismiss up to and including September 1, 2003.

This the ^{4th}4 day of August, 2003.
